

BLUES FRIENDLIES

ALTHOUGH Wycombe Wanderers finish their Rothmans Isthmian League programme tomorrow (Saturday), the Blues will be keeping in trim for their tour to Italy from June 4-11 with three friendly matches.

On Monday they entertain the Maltese Falcons, who are expected to include four Malta internationals, at Loakes Park.

On May 13 Altrincham are the visitors to Loakes Park. The Northern Premier League club are coming down for the F.A. Trophy final the following day and play Wanderers on the Friday evening. Altrincham themselves might have been at Wembley for they only lost to Scarborough in the semi-final after two replays. Scarborough eventually triumphed 2-1.

Another Northern Premier League club are the visitors on May 20 when Gateshead provide the opposition.

On tour Wanderers have arranged two matches with games against Rimini and Catollica.
